Electoral District: Nambour (formerly Nicklin)

Submission:

I disappointed but accept the Commission decision that town of Cooroy may remain in the same district as the town of Nambour.

I object to the proposal that the name of the district is changed to Nambour. Cooroy is a town in its own right with its own distinctive character and is in Noosa Shire Council areal. It has no cultural links to Nambour and the district should retain the name Nicklin or another that would suggest correctly that this is a geographic area for the purpose of electoral boundaries only.
