Hello,

I live just on the other side of the Buderim electorate on Horseshoe Bend, Buderim (in Ninderry electorate). I don't agree with not moving the boundary for Buderim to include ALL of Buderim. The northern electorate boundary should run to the south side of the Maroochy River. The suburb of Buderim has different issues compared to the coastal and hinterland suburbs in Ninderry (to be renamed Coolum). We don't see anything of the sitting Ninderry member - I think he also assumes we are in Buderim. Candidate corflutes put up at election time in our area are for Buderim and not Ninderry. There are many other residents who feel this way too. If the boundaries are proposed to change, now is the time to get it right and have all of Buderim in Buderim electorate.
