Submission:

Noosa is currently close to 9% under the quota and is projected to remain at this level by 2032. Currently the town of Cooroy is split into two electorates, Nicklin and Noosa. Including the whole of Cooroy in the Noosa electorate would better align with economic, social, regional or other community of interest factors. It would also align better with Noosa Council boundaries. At present issues which affect the whole of Cooroy and surrounding areas result in confusion within the community as to who to approach regarding said issues. A single representative would be more effective in dealing with the whole town's requirements.
