Dear Chairperson and Committee,
My husband and I live in the current Bundamba electorate in the suburb of Collingwood Park and have family and community groups which we are involved with/interact with which are located in the Jordan electorate. I would like to suggest some comments to be considered during the consultation/decision processes.
Kind regards,
Heidi and Bradley Holt

Submission Electorates: Bundamba (Ripley), Jordan and a new potential electorate Jimboomba

Comments on Jordan, Ripley (new electorate, formerly Bundamba) and New Electorate of Jimboomba:

We do not agree with submission ID S-00110's (Liberal National Party) "Greenbank" electorate as it splinters the area of Camira from the Springfield area and puts it in the same area as New Beith. Camira should stay with Springfield/Jordan areas, and Jimboomba is its own area of population growth/similar places of community interest.

We are more amenable to submission S-00112's (Queensland Greens) suggestion of Ripley (formerly electorate of Bundamba) to be created as per submission. Geographically these areas of Redbank, Collingwood Park, Ripley and Riverview are similar in community needs and demographics with more new developments in many of these suburbs. This means higher population growth in these local areas requiring these new electoral boundaries. Creation of this electorate would give more of a community of interest around Redbank/Collingwood Park areas.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.
