Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to you lodging my objection to removing the township of Highfields Qld, from the Toowoomba North electorate to the electorate of Nanango/ Condamine.

Highfields is fifteen kilometres north of Toowoomba, and remains a rapidly growing township.

However, Highfields residents, including my own family, rely very heavily on Toowoomba for employment, business, health, higher education and welfare services and opportunities.

I strongly believe that we must remain in the Toowoomba North Electorate if our town is to continue to build a strong, vibrant and educated community.

Having a local State Government representative has enabled the community of Highfields to benefit from State Government funded projects.

Such as the Highfields Police Station, Highfields State Secondary College, the New England Highway Bikeway, and funding for transport infrastructure that is crucial to our future Highfields Town Centre project.

Local knowledge, both geographical and social, is what we are used to and require from our local State Government Representative.

A move to the Nanango/ Condamine electorate is not necessary. I feel strongly about face-to-face relationships and that we have a State Government representative who is easily accessible to all their constituents.

I kindly ask that the Highfields township remains within the Toowoomba North electorate.

Yours Respectfully,
Felicity Bynge.
